Wright Clothing Company announce a new policy to sell Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes exclusively

THAT'S a move we've been contemplating for some time; we've finally made it, because it was to our customer's interests, and to ours, to do so.

It'll no longer be necessary to ask, "Is this a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit?" when the salesman brings out a new model. He won't bring out anything else.

By confining ourselves to one kind of clothes, we give you all the benefit of a complete showing of the finest clohtes made. All-wool clothes that are all style. Garments for the younger men embodying every detail of the latest style ideas. "Staid and steady" clothes for that kind of business men.

Then, too, there'll be a bigger choice than ever in fabrics, patterns, weaves and colors.

Hart Schaffner & Marx on every label means satisfaction in every garment; your idea of it. If you don't get it, you get your money back.

Hearst's Magazine-A Liberal Education

COMPARE any magazine with Hearst's. Count the features—see if it has twenty-six as has Hearst's for October. First compare simply the amount of reading Hearst's. Compare the writers their skill and reputation. Contrast the ordinary magazine story with the splendid fiction you will find in Hearst's. Contrast the old-fashioned, longwinded magazine article with the snap and sparkle of those in

HALF of Hearst's is serious—though never dull or preachy. For instance: G. K. Chesterton writes of the Labor Problem, Marie Ganz of Amarchy, B. C. Forbes tells how big business men grow rich, and so on. In lighter vein me Walt Mason, and K. C. B. For those who prefer fiction, Donn Byrne, Maurice Level, Robert W. Chambers, Arthur Somers Roche, Albert Payson Terhune and Bruno Lessing contribute wonderful short stories. There are always from six to nine great short stones in Hearst's. See if you can find their equal in any two other magazines.

DO you like the "best-sellers" before they become moving pictures or even books? Four great serials in Hearst's for October. Gouverneur Morris starts his new novel "Better Days" in this issue. In the same number are novels by Arthur Stringer, Edwin Balmer and E. Phillips Oppenheim. Maybe you like books, pictures, plays, poems, science! Do you want to know something about Galsworthy's latest book, of Rupert Brooke's poetry, of the latest play, of modern art, of the newest wonders of science? See Hearst's for October.

The object of Hearst's is to entertain and enlighten. Through all its entertainment, however, there runs a certain serious purpose—a definite mission. And that mission is this: to discuss, elucidate and solveso far as is possible—the vital questions of family and public life that people everywhere are themselves considering and discussing.

F YOU are not interested in a magazine a bit beyond the ordinary-if you don't particularly care for a magazine that will make you think you won't wan. Hearst's this month or any other. BUT if you want the works of the world's great writers; if you want the words of the world's real leaders; if you want the thoughts of the world's great thinkers; don't fail to make sure each month - starting today with October - of your requirer copy of
